COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The State of Maine Publicity Bureau is now preparing their listings of events for the summer. These lists are sent out to the news outlets and people planning their vacations in Maine. Any local organization that is planning any event can have it entered in the publication. Just call or stop in at the town office and tell us what the event is, when it will be held and the place it is to be held. Our list is going in Tuesday afternoon, May 29, so that is your last day.

A few people have asked me about getting their driveways tarred this summer. Anyone wanting their driveway tarred should come in the office and sign a work authorization permit.

We are now installing three manholes on Mechanic Street. The sewer plans for that street were made in 1905 and many of the markers that were used are now gone. We finally located the sewer at the three desired places and the manholes should be completed by Friday. It will be over a month before the soil cement street is constructed on Mechanic Street. The fill around these manholes has to settle so the street won't sag after the soil cement is applied. The street will be rough for a while but it should be a good street when the job is finished.

SIMEON O. KEDDY

Simeon O. Keddy of Bethel died Wednesday at a Waterford nursing home where he had been a patient for the past year and a half.

Born at New Germany, N. S., Dec. 27, 1875, the son of Archibald and Mary Jodrey Keddy he had been a woodsman his entire life and lived in Canada, Oregon and Maine.

He belonged to the Methodist Church of Bethel and the Loyal Order of Moose.

Surviving are three daughters, Bernice K. Horton, South Portland; Mildred K. Stephenson, Manassquan, N. J.; and Dorothy K. Small, Gorham; three sons, Ronald H. Keddy, Witherfield, Conn.; Warren A., Portland; and Royden H., of Gorham; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Private funeral services will be held at the Andrews funeral home at South Woodstock, Saturday at 2 p. m., the Rev. Dr. Sullivan officiating. Interment at Wayside Cemetery, West Paris.

The value of stolen property recovered by the State Police Bureau of Investigation in 1961 totaled in excess of $60,000.

BETHEL PTA HEARS STATE PARK DIRECTOR

The PTA met Tuesday evening at Crescent Park School with the 8th Grade attending to hear Charles Bradford, Director of Maine State Parks, give an informative talk on Maine's historic sites and scenic parks, which were beautifully illustrated with slides.

After the program, a short business meeting was held at which time Janet Richardson gave a report on the year's programs and Marilyn Parker gave a report on projects successfully completed during the year.

The attendance banner was won by the 8th Grade.

The Nominating Committee gave their recommendations which were approved and are as follows for 1962-63: President, Janet Richardson; Vice President, Charles Heino; Secretary, Hilda Brown; Treasurer, Colleen Boyd.

It was voted to have a September meeting. Refreshments were served by the first grade mothers.

POPPY DAY, MAY 26

Let us listen for a few moments to what the poppy has to say, for this Poppy of ours has a voice which will speak if we give an attentive ear. It will tell of a young American who gave his life that we might live in freedom.

Give an ear again. The Poppy is saying: "Hospitalized veterans made me. They earned money making me."

And the Poppy also says: "Every dime people give when they wear me goes toward helping disabled war veterans and needy children of veterans."

The voice of the Poppy reminds us that if we are to keep true faith with those who sleep in Flanders Fields we must make sure that every last one of these poppies is worn on Poppy Day, May 26.

RAY A. CUMMINGS

Ray A. Cummings of Portland passed away this Thursday morning at the Tugus hospital.

Funeral services will be held at the Greenleaf funeral home Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment will be at Riverside Cemetery.

News from Citizen correspondents should be sent a day earlier next week. Reports of week end events must be received by Tuesday morning. The Citizen office will be closed Wednesday, Memorial Day, and the Citizen will be published at the usual time Thursday.

Bethel Girl Candidate Eastern States Honor

Miss Barbara Angevine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Angevine of Bethel, has been selected as a candidate in the Eastern States Exposition's "Festival of College Queens" program. Candidates have been invited to a preliminary screening to be held on the Exposition grounds Saturday, May 26.

Miss Angevine, a member of the class of 1964 at Farmington's State Teachers College where she majors in Home Economics, was elected Carnival Queen there last winter. She graduated from Gould Academy in 1960.

The winner of the Festival will receive a $500 scholarship to the New England college of her choice. The scholarship winner will be chosen on Tuesday, Sept. 18, during the Exposition's nine day run. Selection will be made on the basis of health and beauty, academic and personal achievement, and personal motivation.

Miss Angevine was recently elected house president of Mallett Hall at the Farmington State Teachers College.

Bethel Red Cross Holds Annual Meeting

The Bethel Branch of the Southern Oxford County Chapter, American National Red Cross, held its annual meeting at Mr. and Mrs. Kimball Ames on Wednesday evening, May 16.

The treasurer reported a balance of $245.72. Disbursements for the year include expenses for Home Service purchase, school first-aid equipment, swimming instruction and transportation, etc.

Chairman Clifford Laws reported collection for the 1962 Red Cross Drive held in March totaled $340.62. Mr. Laws would like to express his appreciation for all who participated in the canvass and for all those people who so willingly contributed.

Mrs. Bisbee reported for the Home Service Program. Among services rendered were: notification to service personnel of sickness in their family; two emergency leaves to attend funerals; and medical assistance for several children of service connected parents.

The swimming program will again be directed by Miss Beverly Blake and Mr. Laws will organize the transportation for the children which will be paid for through town appropriations.

The same slate of officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: Chairman, Clifford Laws; Secretary, Barbara Douglass; Treasurer, Kimball Ames; Home Service, Ethel Bisbee; Production, Janet Richardson; Jr. Red Cross, Edmond Vachon. The present disaster committee was re-appointed.

County SCD Sponsors Land Judging Contest

The supervisors of the Oxford County Soil Conservation District, at their regular May business meeting, voted to donate cash prizes to winners of the County 4-H Land Judging Contest.

The contest will be held in cooperation with Russell E. Clark, County 4-H Club Agent. The supervisors donated $15.00 as first prize and $10.00 for second prize. The winners of the county contest will go to Orono in June to compete in the state contest.

Lyman W. Jacobsen, Soil Conservation Service, will conduct the training school and the judging contest.

The contest will be held on Saturday, May 26. The school will be in the morning and the judging in the afternoon. The school will be conducted at the Soil Conservation Service office located on the third floor of the Masonic Building in South Paris at 9 A. M.

The field judging pits will be on the Edgar Colby farm in Welchville.

The Week in Oxford County

Fire caused by lightning badly damaged the home of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Quinn and family on Paris Hill early Saturday morning. The barn, shed and ell were destroyed. The damage was estimated at $25,000.

The Norway-Paris Comets, Maine's outstanding Senior Drum and Bugle Corps, is expected to make its first appearance on Sunday afternoon at the parade at South Paris in conjunction with the American Legion Second District meeting. The Comets were newly organized last year. The co-captains are Cheryl Pike and Mary Lou Onofrio.

Prof. Richard D. Wilbur was key speaker at the annual Cum Laude Lecture last Thursday at Sargent Gymnasium, Hebron Academy. Prof. Wilbur read selections of his poetry. He was the recipient of the Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1957.

An electrical storm caused power failures in Norway,

South Paris and Bridgton, Sunday evening.
Prof. Ruth Crosby of the English department, University of Maine, summer resident of Newry, expects to retire in June.

More than 40,000 men, 370 aircraft and 70 ships of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps are taking part in the exercise, scheduled by the U. S. Atlantic Command.

The exercise features a full-scale amphibious assault on Onslow Beach at Camp Le-jeune, backed up by airborne troops and close air support from offshore.

It is the year's major joint test of the Atlantic Command's conventional warfare capabilities.

TEBBETSES AND SAHLBERG TO SPEAK TO GREENWOOD PARENT-TEACHER GROUP

The Greenwood Parent-Teacher Group proudly announces that at their regular meeting on Monday, May 28th, they will have as guest speakers, Mr. and Mrs. John Tebberts of Bethel who have recently returned from Japan. The Teb-berts will speak on their stay in Japan and compare Japanese living and business with life here in the United States.
 Also at this meeting Superintendent Sahlberg will discuss with the group the possibilities and data concerning Adult Education.

The Greenwood Parent-
 Teacher Group cordially extends an invitation to the public to hear these speakers.
 School children are definitely invited. This meeting will be held at the Locke Mills Town Hall on Monday evening, May 28th at 8 p. m.

BRYANT POND MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM

The Bryant Pond Memorial Day Parade will start promptly at 1 p. m. at the Grange Hall. All veterans, the American Legion, its Auxiliary, Boy and Girl Scouts, 4-H club members and school children are invited to participate.

The program, in charge of Judith Grover Tent, D. U. V., will consist of the following:
 Flag Raising; Wreath and Flag
 Placing at Honor Roll; Prayer,
 Rev. G. E. Lindahl; America,
 South Paris Band; General Log-
 an's Address, Clifford York;
 Accordion Solo, Philip House;
 Lincoln's Gettysburg Address,
 Karen Berrymont; Selection by Band; Speaker, Maurice Warner of Bath; Benediction; Parade Commences.

The next time you find yourself getting impatient when you're held up by slower cars ahead, remember this: the one or two minutes you might save by taking a chance will never be noticed a few hours later, and, the State Police emphasize, you could very well lose those one or two minutes, plus the millions of minutes you might have enjoyed by not taking the chance. Mighty poor odds, aren't they?

The war between the sexes never will be won by either side. Too much fraternizing with the enemy. — Changing

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Thursday, May 24
 Read Luke 11:1-8
 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.
 (John 15:14)

Everybody in our community now knows Bertha as a kind friend. However, it was not always so, for she used to have bitterness and jealousy in her heart toward many.

After Bertha gave her life to Christ and found Him such a great friend, she spent much time in prayer. Each day she would ask Him for specific ways to show kindnesses to the ones she formerly liked the least. One day she was led to take care of the children of an ill neighbor. Another day she was directed to visit and give some little handmade gifts to a lonely woman. Still another day she read the Bible to an old gentleman with failing eyesight. Every day she prayed earnestly for the ones she used to dislike.

Soon Bertha found she loved them all. Now she spends much time praying for all the people, for she loves them all as friends.

PRAYER: O God, we thank Thee for Thy friendship.
 Show us ways we can be better friends to Thee. Entrust us with little or large tasks
 —whatever we can do to be-ian project in the United States

 cause of the profit system. Every so-called non-profit enter-erates on gifts supplied by

TO DEDICATE BERLIN AIRPORT SUNDAY IN HONOR OF JOHNNY WEST

The Berlin Municipal Airport at Milan, N. H., will be dedicated to the memory of "Johnny" West Sunday afternoon. Relatives, former students, and officials will be among those present at the unveiling of the monument officially recognizing the pioneer role played by the daring and popular flyer.

The marker will read: "This airport is dedicated to the memory of John B. West, the pioneer of aviation in the city of Berlin, whose many flight missions of mercy will long be remembered and whose leadership and inspiration will be a challenge to our present and future aviators."

Principal speaker at the ceremony which starts at 2 o'clock will be Russell Hilliard, New Hampshire Director of Aeronautics and long time friend of John West. The program will include a Civil Air Patrol display, aircraft fly-overs, and martial music.

West brought the thrill of flying to hundreds of North Country people. He fought continually for better airport facilities, and was well known for his many mercy flights to northern Maine and New Hampshire during floods and storm conditions.

He died at the Berlin hospital Feb. 21, 1941. His plane struck a power wire at the river crossing near the Mason farm in Gilead and he crashed on the river ice the evening before. He was accompanied in another plane by Dr. and Mrs.
 Francis Appleton of Gorham, who landed nearby and accompanied him to Berlin.

FROM OUR FILES

10 YEARS AGO

The contract for construction of a Shell service station at the corner of Mechanic and High Streets was awarded to Penchey Builders of Augusta. The design was to be colonial, similar to two others in Rumford built by Ruth Carver Ames and the station was to be leased and operated by "Pete" Chapin.

Walter Littlehale of Magalloway was electrocuted and died instantly when the logging crane for which he was hitching the tongs contacted a high tension wire. The accident occurred near Sturtevant Pond, where he was working for Grafton Lumber Co. of Bethel.

The house on the former Hutchinson property on Grover Hill, owned by Earlon Crouse, was burned. Firemen, delayed by muddy road, were able to save the barn.

Beryllium Development, Inc., commenced operations in exploration, development and mining of pegmatites in the Newry Mountain district near Andover, with the mining of beryl the principal aim.

Members of the Norway Water District voted to add fluorine to the water.

Deaths: Mrs. Emma A. Barker, Fred Howard, Mrs. John Vail, Miss Catherine Senton.

CITIZENSHIP AWARD GIVEN LT. COL. JOHN H. GLENN BY MILITARY CHAPLAINS

Chaplain (Cdr.) Charles Nelson, USN, Ret., of Broad Street, attended the meeting of the Military Chaplains of the United States of America at Colorado Springs recently as delegate from the New England Chapter. During these sessions the first Annual Citizenship award of the association was made to Lt. Col. John H. Glenn, Jr., and in his absence was accepted by a general of the Marine Corps. The tribute to Col. Glenn will be of interest.

The Military Chaplains Association of the United States of America. The primary purpose of the Military Chaplains Association of the United States of America, as expressed in the constitution, is "to safeguard and to strengthen the forces of the faith and morality of our nation."

In the light of our military experience, we have learned at first hand the immeasurable power for good in the living example of officers of faith, morality, and integrity of character.

Their personal influence upon the young and immature servicemen truly strengthens the qualities of character upon which the survival of the American nation depends.

We see in Lieutenant Colonel John H. Glenn, Jr., United States Marine Corps, the living influence of a dedication to excellence, with personal modesty, with true valor, and with constant devotion to family and country. His is a living faith which professes an hum-

Construction of the four-span bridge over Route 2 and the Grand Trunk tracks, which started last fall, has continued with little interruption through the winter. Much has been accomplished with a small crew working steadily. Here is a view toward the north and east, with the Hanover Dowel Co. mill in the right background. At the right on the bridge is the sidewalk, which continues this way 125 feet before passing down the bank and across the east bound ramp. Sidewalk will parallel the road construction as far as Elm Street. Remains of the Guy Morgan buildings are at right foreground.

May 19, Darwin Sweatt, aged 72 years.

In North Waterford, May 23, Simeon Keddy, of Bethel, aged 88 years.

In Togus, May 24, Ray A. Cummings of Portland, aged 65 years.
